MR. PUTHUPALLI S. KRISHNA PILLAI: I beg to present the report of the Select Committee on the Travancore Companies Regulation Amendment Bill and beg to move that the Bill as reported be taken up for consideration.

MR. A. GOPALA MENON: I second it.

MR. A. THANU PILLAI: Sir, with your permission I have a request to make. The Legal Remembrancer has now moved that the Companies Regulation Amendment Bill be taken up for consideration. I request the Chair to have that Bill taken up last, because it is a lengthy bill and the Select Committee Report on that Bill was supplied to us rather late. The other Bills therefore may be proceeded with and this Bill may be taken up as the last item of legislative business.

PRESIDENT: Does the Legal Remembrancer find any difficulty in regard to that?
